

I am strongly opposed to petition 04-160 made by the National Association of Broadcasters. I was a broadcaster myself for thirty years, and I feel that XM Radio, and Sirius radio, being paid services already have the obvious support of their customers. Personally, I would not be without XM and support everything they have done.